His Church Gets New Organ

The REV. J. FRANKLIN SMITH

Howard, Aug. 30.—A new $5000 pipe organ recently installed in the First Methodist Church here, of which the Rev. J. Franklin Smith, is pastor, will be dedicated Sunday, with services at 2.30 o'clock. The organ is the gift of Philip C. Holter, in memory of his wife, Mrs. Edith Weber Holter.

A special dedicatory service has been arranged. The Rev. W. Edward Watkins, district superintendent of the Williamsport distrist, Central Pennsylvania Conference, will dedicate the organ. The pastor, the Rev. J. Franklin Smith, will preach the sermon.

Special music and singing will be furnished by the organist, and a quartet from the Lock Haven Methodist Episcopal Church. The church organist, Mrs. Grace Holter, will play for the congregational singing. Jude M. Ward Fleming, of Bellefonte, will deliver the presentation speech and W. C. Thompson, member of the official board of the church, will accept.
