

A DELIGHTFUL RECITAL.

Prof. Dietz Presides at Ascension Church's Splendid Organ.

Prof. Dietz gave another of his delightful free organ recitals at the Church of the Ascension last night. The large attendance was ample proof of the popularity of these entertainments, and there were many expressions of gratification at both the character of the selections rendered and the manner of their performance. Prof. Dietz chooses only the highest grade of music for these recitals, and this fact is doing much towards elevating the musical taste of this city. Last night's program was as follows:

Concert Piece, Op. 24—Prelude—Theme—Variations—Finale. Alex. Guilman.

a. Hymn of the Nune. b. March in E flat—L. Wely.

Variations—Star Spangled Banner. D. Buck.

Funeral March of a Marionette—Gounod.

Toeatta in A major—W. T. Best.

The Storm (by request)—J. Lemmens.

Polish Dance—Scharwenka.

a. Am Meer (By the Sea). b. Military March—Schubert.

Overture—Merry Wives of Windsor—Nicolai.
