

St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church at Easton was consecrated last Sunday. Rev. Dr. Barclay the pastor preached both morning and evening. An interesting children's meeting was held in the afternoon. The collection at the close of the morning service amounted to $2,000, and a considerable additional sum was also taken up in the evening. The audience room will seat four hundred persons. The organ cost $3,200. The debt upon the church is $6,000.
