

JOHN ROBERTS (1868)

Cohocksink [r.] Presbyterian Church
Franklin Street and Columbia Avenue
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

"A New Organ," The Philadelphia Inquirer (Wednesday, May 6, 1868): 3.

A NEW ORGAN.--A new and splendid organ has been purchased by the Cochoklak Presbyterian Church, corner of Franklin street and Columbia Avenue. The Church itself both in its architectural design and internal arrangements, is one of the most beautiful owned by this denomination, and is universally and deservedly admired. The new organ was built by Mr. John Roberts, of Frankford, and is a superior instrument.