

The Royal Canadian College of Organists

This Organ built by Edward Lye & Sons of Toronto, Ontario
in the year 1896

has been selected for recognition by the Historic Organ Committee of the Royal Canadian College of Organists as an historical instrument in

Trinity United Church
Amman, Ontario

And is worthy of a citation in Category B

President, Royal Canadian College of Organists

Chairman, Historic Organ Committee

This 9th day of July in the year 2019

This document is to be hung in a visible place near the organ.

This citation is held in trust until any changes to the organ be made. Should any tonal or mechanical revisions or alterations take place, this citation must be returned to the RCO National Office and a new application for recognition be made when these changes are complete.