Dedication Organ Recital

Mr. Kinder is an organist residing in Philadelphia. He has written a numbe of compositions for the organ. "In Moonlight," makes good use of the Chimes. "Will o' the Wisp" Nevin A clever character piece, light and deft, altogether in keeping with the subject "The Lost Chord" Sullivan is known chiefly as a composer of many light operas. He also wrot 56 hymn tunes and a large number of songs and anthems. The popularity o "The Lost Chord" is based upon its sound musiclanship and tender sentiment Anthem—"Hoflogo Tomolue" Lyosk: Central Reformed Church Choir of Grand Rapids "Lamentation" Guilman This composition was written by Guilmant in memory of his friend Abbe Henr Gros, who at the age of 31 was killed on the plateau of Avron, December 271 1870, during the bombardment of Paris in the "Franco-Prussian" war. At the beginning of this number Guilmant wrote a Latin quotation taken from the second Book of Samuel,—the lament of the death of Saul and Jonathan. "The beauty of Israel is slain upon thy high places 1 am distressed for thee, brother How are the mighty fallen as though he had not been anointe with oil." The lamentation ends with an old Plain-song, "Jerusalem, Jerusalem turn ye to the Lord your God." In using this Plain-song, Guilmant, Jerusalem turn yet othe Lord your God." In using this Plain-song, Guilmant vices the same sentiment as does Gounod in his Cantata "Gallia," a pleading for Paris turn again to the God of Irasel for its redemption. "The French Clock" Bornscheir A short descriptive number arranged by Henry Fry of Philadelphia. "The Bells of St. Anne De Beaupre" Russe Dr. Russell received his inspiration for this number from the famous shrine St. Ambrose de Beaupre near Quebec which was destroyed by fire a few year ago. We are to imagine hearing the invitation of the St. Anne's Chime presently witnessing the gathering of the faithful, the choir chanting the hymn Bonne St. Anne, "pler pour nons," the procession, the miracle, benediction, an finally hearing the bells in the distan	of Ce	ntral Reformed Church, Gran	. C. B. D. and the Robed Choir d Rapids, Mr. Barcafer, Director
Rossini was one of the greatest melodists the world has produced and in his sphere stands univaled. A composer who had among his admirers such men a Schunter. Mendelssohn and Schuman must indeed, have been no ordinary was received to the such as first produced in Paris in 1829. Rossini was superior was first produced in Paris in 1829. Rossini was superior was first produced in Paris in 1829. Rossini was superior which in turn is succeeded by a pastoral section introducing a Swiss tune of irregular description that in June is blown on the Alpine horn to call cattle from the valleys to the higher pastures. After this, the overture is brought to a close by an exhilarating finale. "In Moonlight" Mr. Kinder is an organist residing in Philadelphia. He has written a numbe of compositions for the organ. "In Moonlight," makes good use of the Chime of compositions for the organ. "In Moonlight," makes good use of the Chime of Character piece, light and deft, altogether in keeping with the subject "The Lost Chord" Sullivan is known chiefly as a composer of many light operas. He also wrot 56 hymn tunes and a large number of songs and anthems. The popularity of "The Lost Chord" is based upon its sound musicianship and tender sentimes. Anthem—"Hoflogo Tomolue" Central Reformed Church Choir of Grand Rapids "Lamentation" Guilman This composition was written by Guilmant in memory of his friend Abbe Hear of Gross, who at the age of 31 was killed on the plateau of Avron, December 271 1870, who is number Guilmant worde a Latin quotation taken from the beginning of this number Guilmant worde a Latin quotation taken from the beauty of Israel is slain upon thy high places I am distressed for the beauty of Israel is slain upon thy high places I am distressed for the pour hear is slain upon thy high places I am distressed for the beauty of Israel is slain upon thy high places I am distressed for the particular and the Good of Farsel for its redemption. "The French Clock" A short descriptive number arra	Overt	ure to "William Tell"	Rossini which in turn is succeeded by a pastoral section introducing a Swiss tune of irregular description that in June is blown on the Alpine horn to call cattle from the valleys to the higher pastures. After this, the overture is brought to a close by an exhilarating finale. "In Moonlight" Mr. Kinder is an organist residing in Philadelphia. He has written a numbe of compositions for the organ. "In Moonlight," makes good use of the Chimes. "Will o' the Wisp" A clever character piece, light and deft, altogether in keeping with the subject So hymn tunes and a large number of songs and anthems. The popularity of "The Lost Chord" Sullivan is known chiefly as a composer of many light operas. He also wrot 56 hymn tunes and a large number of songs and anthems. The popularity of "The Lost Chord" is based upon its sound musicianship and tender sentiment Anthem—"Hoflogo Tomolue" Lvosk; Central Reformed Church Choir of Grand Rapids "Lamentation" Guilman This composition was written by Guilmant in memory of his friend Abbe Henri Gros, who at the age of 31 was killed on the plateau of Avron, December 27tl 1870, during the bombardment of Parls in the "Franco-Prussian" war. At the beginning of this number Guilmant wrote a Latin quotation taken from the second Book of Samuel,—the lament of the death of Saul and Jonathan. "The beauty of Israel is silan upon thy high places I am distressed for thee, me brother How are the mighty fallen as though he had not been anointed with oil." The lamentation ends with an old Plain-song, "Jerusalem, Jerusalem Jerusalem turn ye to the Lord your God." In using this Plain-song, Guilmant voices the same sentiment as does Gounod in his Canata "Gallia," a pleading for Parls turn again to the God of Irasel for its redemption. "The French Clock" A short descriptive number arranged by Henry Fry of Philadelphia. "The Bells of St. Anne De Beaupre" Dr. Russel received his inspiration for this number from the famous shrine of the Abort descriptive number are to imagine hearing the invit		Rossini was one of the greatest melo sphere stands unrivaled. A composer Schubert, Mendelssohn and Schuma writer. "William Tell" was first pro- years old when he wrote this work. idleness.	odists the world has produced and in his who had among his admirers such men as n must indeed, have been no ordinary oduced in Paris in 1829. Rossini was 37 He lived 39 years thereafter but lived in
Mr. Kinder is an organist residing in Philadelphia. He has written a numbe of compositions for the organ. "In Moonlight," makes good use of the Chimes. "Will o' the Wisp" Nevin A clever character piece, light and deft, altogether in keeping with the subject "The Lost Chord" Sullivan is known chiefly as a composer of many light operas. He also wrot 56 hymn tunes and a large number of songs and anthems. The popularity o "The Lost Chord" is based upon its sound musiclanship and tender sentiment Anthem—"Hoflogo Tomolue" Lvosk: Central Reformed Church Choir of Grand Rapids "Lamentation" Guilman This composition was written by Guilmant in memory of his friend Abbe Henr Gros, who at the age of 31 was killed on the plateau of Avron, December 27tl 1870, during the bombardment of Paris in the "Franco-Prussian" war. At the beginning of this number Guilmant wrote a Latin quotation taken from the second Book of Samuel,—the lament of the death of Saul and Jonathan. "The beauty of Israel is slain upon thy high places I am distressed for thee, brother How are the mighty fallen as though he had not been anointe with oil." The lamentation ends with an old Plain-song, "Jerusalem, Jerusalem turn ye to the Lord your God." In using this Plain-song, Guilmant, Jerusalem turn yet othe Lord your God." In using this Plain-song, Guilmant vices the same sentiment as does Gounod in his Cantata "Gallia," a pleading for Paris turn again to the God of Irasel for its redemption. "The French Clock" Bornscheir A short descriptive number arranged by Henry Fry of Philadelphia. "The Bells of St. Anne De Beaupre" Russe Dr. Russell received his inspiration for this number from the famous shrine St. Ambrose de Beaupre near Quebec which was destroyed by fire a few year ago. We are to imagine hearing the invitation of the St. Anne's Chime presently witnessing the gathering of the faithful, the choir chanting the hymn Bonne St. Anne, "pier pour nons," the procession, the miracle, benediction, an finally hearing the bells in the dista		which in turn is succeeded by a passirregular description that in June is bl the valleys to the higher pastures. At	storal section introducing a Swiss tune of lown on the Alpine horn to call cattle from
Mr. Kinder is an organist residing in Philadelphia. He has written a numbe of compositions for the organ. "In Moonlight," makes good use of the Chimes. "Will o' the Wisp" A clever character piece, light and deft, altogether in keeping with the subject of the Lost Chord" Sullivan is known chiefly as a composer of many light operas. He also wrot 56 hymn tunes and a large number of songs and anthems. The popularity of "The Lost Chord" is based upon its sound musicianship and tender sentiment Anthem—"Hoflogo Tomolue" Lvosk; Central Reformed Church Choir of Grand Rapids "Lamentation" Guilman This composition was written by Guilmant in memory of his friend Abbe Henr Gros, who at the age of 31 was killed on the plateau of Avron, December 27tl 1870, during the bombardment of Paris in the "Franco-Prussian" war. At the beginning of this number Guilmant wrote a Latin quotation taken from the second Book of Samuel,—the lament of the death of Saul and Jonathan. "The beauty of Israel is slain upon thy high places I am distressed for thee, me brother How are the mighty fallen as though he had not been anointed turn ye to the Lord your God." In using this Plain-song, "Jerusalem, Jerusalem turn ye to the Lord your God." In using this Plain-song, Guilmant voices the same sentiment as does Gounod in his Cantata "Gallia," a pleading for Paris turn again to the God of Irasel for its redemption. "The French Clock" A short descriptive number arranged by Henry Fry of Philadelphia. "The Bells of St. Anne De Beaupre" Dr. Russel received his inspiration for this number from the famous shrine of St. Ambrose de Beaupre near Quebec which was destroyed by fire a few year ago. We are to imagine hearing the invitation of the St. Anne's Chime presently witnessing the gathering of the faithful, the choir chanting the hymn Bonne St. Anne, "pier pour nons," the procession, the miracle, benediction, an finally hearing the bells in the distance all in all a very interesting description. This is one of the best known among	"In N	Moonlight"	Kinder
"The Lost Chord" Sullivan is known chiefly as a composer of many light operas. He also wrot 56 hymn tunes and a large number of songs and anthems. The popularity of "The Lost Chord" is based upon its sound musicianship and tender sentiment Anthem—"Hoflogo Tomolue" Central Reformed Church Choir of Grand Rapids "Lamentation" Guilman This composition was written by Guilmant in memory of his friend Abbe Henr Gros, who at the age of 31 was killed on the plateau of Avron, December 27ti 1870, during the bombardment of Paris in the "Franco-Prussian" war. At the beginning of this number Guilmant wrote a Latin quotation taken from the second Book of Samuel,—the lament of the death of Saul and Jonathan. "The beauty of Israel is slain upon thy high places I am distressed for thee, more brother How are the mighty fallen as though he had not been anointe with oil." The lamentation ends with an old Plain-song, "Jerusalem, Jerusalem turn ye to the Lord your God." In using this Plain-song, "Jerusalem, Jerusalem turn again to the God of Irasel for its redemption. "The French Clock" A short descriptive number arranged by Henry Fry of Philadelphia. "The Bells of St. Anne De Beaupre" Dr. Russel received his inspiration for this number from the famous shrine of St. Ambrose de Beaupre near Quebec which was destroyed by fire a few year ago. We are to imagine hearing the invitation of the St. Anne's Chime presently witnessing the gathering of the faithful, the choir chanting the hymn Bonne St. Anne, "pier pour nons," the procession, the miracle, benediction, an finally hearing the bells in the distance all in all a very interesting description. "Toccata from the Fifth Symphony" Wido A Toccata is a piece for a keyed instrument designed to display the touch an execution of the performer. French composers delight in this form of compos tion. This is one of the best known among modern examples by Charles Mar Widor living at this time in Paris.	111 1	Mr. Kinder is an organist residing in of compositions for the organ. "In M	Philadelphia. He has written a number foonlight," makes good use of the Chimes.
"The Lost Chord" Sullivan is known chiefly as a composer of many light operas. He also wrot 56 hymn tunes and a large number of songs and anthems. The popularity of "The Lost Chord" is based upon its sound musicianship and tender sentiment. Anthem—"Hoflogo Tomolue" Central Reformed Church Choir of Grand Rapids "Lamentation" This composition was written by Guilmant in memory of his friend Abbe Henr Gros, who at the age of 31 was killed on the plateau of Avron, December 27th 1870, during the bombardment of Paris in the "Franco-Prussian" war. At the beginning of this number Guilmant wrote a Latin quotation taken from the second Book of Samuel,—the lament of the death of Saul and Jonathan. "The beauty of Israel is slain upon thy high places I am distressed for thee, more brother How are the mighty fallen as though he had not been another with oil." The lamentation ends with an old Plain-song, "Jerusalem, Jerusalem turn ye to the Lord your God." In using this Plain-song, "Jerusalem, Jerusalem turn again to the God of Irasel for its redemption. "The French Clock" A short descriptive number arranged by Henry Fry of Philadelphia. "The Bells of St. Anne De Beaupre" Dr. Russel received his inspiration for this number from the famous shrine of St. Ambrose de Beaupre near Quebec which was destroyed by fire a few year ago. We are to imagine hearing the invitation of the St. Anne's Chime presently witnessing the gathering of the faithful, the choir chanting the hymn Bonne St. Anne, "pier pour nons," the procession, the miracle, benediction, an finally hearing the bells in the distance all in all a very interesting description. "Toccata from the Fifth Symphony" Wido A Toccata is a piece for a keyed instrument designed to display the touch an execution of the performer. French composers delight in this form of compos tion. This is one of the best known among modern examples by Charles Mar Widor living at this time in Paris.	65X7;11	o' the Wisn'	Nevin
Sullivan is known chiefly as a composer of many light operas. He also wrot 56 hymn tunes and a large number of songs and anthems. The popularity of "The Lost Chord" is based upon its sound musicianship and tender sentiment and the control of the control of the control of Grand Rapids. "Lamentation" Central Reformed Church Choir of Grand Rapids "Lamentation" Guilman This composition was written by Guilmant in memory of his friend Abbe Henr Gros, who at the age of 31 was killed on the plateau of Avron, December 27tt 1870, during the bombardment of Paris in the "Franco-Prussian" war. At the beginning of this number Guilmant wrote a Latin quotation taken from the second Book of Samuel,—the lament of the death of Saul and Jonathan. "The beauty of Israel is slain upon thy high places I am distressed for thee, more brother How are the mighty fallen as though he had not been anointe with oil." The lamentation ends with an old Plain-song, "Jerusalem, Jerusalem turn ye to the Lord your God." In using this Plain-song, Guilmant voices the same sentiment as does Gounod in his Cantata "Gallia," a pleading for Paris turn again to the God of Irasel for its redemption. "The French Clock" A short descriptive number arranged by Henry Fry of Philadelphia. "The Bells of St. Anne De Beaupre" Por, Russell received his inspiration for this number from the famous shrine St. Ambrose de Beaupre near Quebec which was destroyed by fire a few year ago. We are to imagine hearing the invitation of the St. Anne's Chime presently witnessing the gathering of the faithful, the choir chanting the hymn Bonne St. Anne, "pier pour nons," the procession, the miracle, benediction, an finally hearing the bells in the distance all in all a very interesting description. This is one of the best known among modern examples by Charles Mar Widor living at this time in Paris. Prayer Rev. John E. Bennin			eft, altogether in keeping with the subject
Sullivan is known chiefly as a composer of many light operas. He also wrot 56 hymn tunes and a large number of songs and anthems. The popularity on the Lost Chord" is based upon its sound musicianship and tender sentiment. Anthem—"Hoflogo Tomolue" Lvosky. Central Reformed Church Choir of Grand Rapids "Lamentation" Guilmant This composition was written by Guilmant in memory of his friend Abbe Henr Gros, who at the age of 31 was killed on the plateau of Avron, December 27th 1870, during the bombardment of Paris in the "Franco-Prussian" war. At the beginning of this number Guilmant wrote a Latin quotation taken from the second Book of Samuel,—the lament of the death of Saul and Jonathan. "The beauty of Israel is slain upon thy high places I am distressed for thee, moreother How are the mighty fallen as though he had not been anointe with oil." The lamentation ends with an old Plain-song, "Jerusalem, Jerusalem turn ye to the Lord your God." In using this Plain-song, Guilmant voices the same sentiment as does Gounod in his Cantata "Gallia," a pleading for Paris turn again to the God of Irasel for its redemption. "The French Clock" Bornscheir A short descriptive number arranged by Henry Fry of Philadelphia. "The Bells of St. Anne De Beaupre" Russe Dr. Russel received his inspiration for this number from the famous shrine of St. Ambrose de Beaupre near Quebec which was destroyed by fire a few year ago. We are to imagine hearing the invitation of the St. Anne's Chime presently witnessing the gathering of the faithful, the choir chanting the hymn Bonne St. Anne, "pier pour nons," the procession, the miracle, benediction, an finally hearing the bells in the distance all in all a very interesting description. "Toccata from the Fifth Symphony" Wido A Toccata is a piece for a keyed instrument designed to display the touch an execution of the performer. French composers delight in this form of composition. This is one of the best known among modern examples by Charles Mar Widor living at this time in Par	"The	Lost Chord"	Sullivar
Central Reformed Church Choir of Grand Rapids "Lamentation" This composition was written by Guilmant in memory of his friend Abbe Henr Gros, who at the age of 31 was killed on the plateau of Avron, December 27th 1870, during the bombardment of Paris in the "Franco-Prussian" war. At the beginning of this number Guilmant wrote a Latin quotation taken from the second Book of Samuel,—the lament of the death of Saul and Jonathan. "The beauty of Israel is slain upon thy high places I am distressed for thee, me brother How are the mighty fallen as though he had not been anointe with oil." The lamentation ends with an old Plain-song, "Jerusalem, Jerusalem turn ye to the Lord your God." In using this Plain-song, Guilmant voices the same sentiment as does Gounod in his Cantata "Gallia," a pleading for Paris turn again to the God of Irasel for its redemption. "The French Clock" A short descriptive number arranged by Henry Fry of Philadelphia. "The Bells of St. Anne De Beaupre" Por. Russel received his inspiration for this number from the famous shrine of St. Ambrose de Beaupre near Quebec which was destroyed by fire a few year ago. We are to imagine hearing the invitation of the St. Anne's Chime presently witnessing the gathering of the faithful, the choir chanting the hymn Bonne St. Anne, "pier pour nons," the procession, the miracle, benediction, an finally hearing the bells in the distance all in all a very interesting description. "Toccata from the Fifth Symphony" Wido A Toccata is a piece for a keyed instrument designed to display the touch an execution of the performer. French composers delight in this form of composition. This is one of the best known among modern examples by Charles Mar Widor living at this time in Paris. Prayer Rev. John E. Bennin	The	Sullivan is known chiefly as a comp	oser of many light operas. He also wrote of songs and anthems. The popularity of sound musicianship and tender sentiment
Central Reformed Church Choir of Grand Rapids "Lamentation" This composition was written by Guilmant in memory of his friend Abbe Henr Gros, who at the age of 31 was killed on the plateau of Avron, December 27th 1870, during the bombardment of Paris in the "Franco-Prussian" war. At the beginning of this number Guilmant wrote a Latin quotation taken from the second Book of Samuel,—the lament of the death of Saul and Jonathan. "The beauty of Israel is slain upon thy high places I am distressed for thee, moreother How are the mighty fallen as though he had not been anointe with oil." The lamentation ends with an old Plain-song, "Jerusalem, Jerusalem turn ye to the Lord your God." In using this Plain-song, Guilmant voices the same sentiment as does Gounod in his Cantata "Gallia," a pleading for Paris turn again to the God of Irasel for its redemption. "The French Clock" A short descriptive number arranged by Henry Fry of Philadelphia. "The Bells of St. Anne De Beaupre" Dr. Russel received his inspiration for this number from the famous shrine of St. Ambrose de Beaupre near Quebec which was destroyed by fire a few year ago. We are to imagine hearing the invitation of the St. Anne's Chime presently witnessing the gathering of the faithful, the choir chanting the hymn Bonne St. Anne, "pler pour nons," the procession, the miracle, benediction, an finally hearing the bells in the distance all in all a very interesting description. "Toccata from the Fifth Symphony" Wido A Toccata is a piece for a keyed instrument designed to display the touch an execution of the performer. French composers delight in this form of composition. This is one of the best known among modern examples by Charles Mar Widor living at this time in Paris. Prayer Rev. John E. Bennin	Antho	em_"Hoflogo Tomolue"	Lvosky
This composition was written by Guilmant in memory of his friend Abbe Henr Gros, who at the age of 31 was killed on the plateau of Avron, December 27th 1870, during the bombardment of Paris in the "Franco-Prussian" war. At the beginning of this number Guilmant wrote a Latin quotation taken from the second Book of Samuel,—the lament of the death of Saul and Jonathan. "The beauty of Israel is slain upon thy high places I am distressed for thee, me brother How are the mighty fallen as though he had not been anointe with oil." The lamentation ends with an old Plain-song, "Jerusalem, Jerusalem turn ye to the Lord your God." In using this Plain-song, Guilmant voices the same sentiment as does Gounod in his Cantata "Gallia," a pleading for Paris turn again to the God of Irasel for its redemption. "The French Clock" A short descriptive number arranged by Henry Fry of Philadelphia. "The Bells of St. Anne De Beaupre" Dr. Russel received his inspiration for this number from the famous shrine of St. Ambrose de Beaupre near Quebec which was destroyed by fire a few year ago. We are to imagine hearing the invitation of the St. Anne's Chime presently witnessing the gathering of the faithful, the choir chanting the hymn Bonne St. Anne, "pier pour nons," the procession, the miracle, benediction, an finally hearing the bells in the distance all in all a very interesting descriptive form. "Toccata from the Fifth Symphony" A Toccata is a piece for a keyed instrument designed to display the touch an execution of the performer. French composers delight in this form of composition. This is one of the best known among modern examples by Charles Mar Widor living at this time in Paris. Prayer Rev. John E, Bennin	1111011	Central Reformed Church	Choir of Grand Rapids
This composition was written by Guilmant in memory of his friend Abbe Henr Gros, who at the age of 31 was killed on the plateau of Avron, December 27th 1870, during the bombardment of Paris in the "Franco-Prussian" war. At the beginning of this number Guilmant wrote a Latin quotation taken from the second Book of Samuel,—the lament of the death of Saul and Jonathan. "The beauty of Israel is slain upon thy high places I am distressed for thee, me brother How are the mighty fallen as though he had not been anointe with oil." The lamentation ends with an old Plain-song, "Jerusalem, Jerusalem turn ye to the Lord your God." In using this Plain-song, Guilmant voices the same sentiment as does Gounod in his Cantata "Gallia," a pleading for Paris turn again to the God of Irasel for its redemption. "The French Clock" A short descriptive number arranged by Henry Fry of Philadelphia. "The Bells of St. Anne De Beaupre" Dr. Russell received his inspiration for this number from the famous shrine of St. Ambrose de Beaupre near Quebec which was destroyed by fire a few year ago. We are to imagine hearing the invitation of the St. Anne's Chime presently witnessing the gathering of the faithful, the choir chanting the hymn Bonne St. Anne, "pier pour nons," the procession, the miracle, benediction, an finally hearing the bells in the distance all in all a very interesting description. "Toccata from the Fifth Symphony" Wido A Toccata is a piece for a keyed instrument designed to display the touch an execution of the performer. French composers delight in this form of composition. This is one of the best known among modern examples by Charles Mar Widor living at this time in Paris. Prayer Rev. John E, Bennin	"Tam	ontation"	Guilman
"The Bells of St. Anne De Beaupre" St. Ambrose de Beaupre arranged by Henry Fry of Philadelphia. "The Bells of St. Anne De Beaupre" St. Ambrose de Beaupre near Quebec which was destroyed by fire a few year ago. We are to imagine hearing the invitation of the St. Anne's Chime presently witnessing the gathering of the faithful, the choir chanting the hymn Bonne St. Anne, "pier pour nons," the procession, the miracle, benediction, an finally hearing the bells in the distance all in all a very interesting description. "Toccata from the Fifth Symphony" A Toccata is a piece for a keyed instrument designed to display the touch an execution of the performer. French composers delight in this form of composition. This is one of the best known among modern examples by Charles Mar Widor living at this time in Paris. Prayer Rev. John E. Bennin		This composition was written by Guil	mant in memory of his friend Abbe Henry d on the plateau of Avron, December 27th ris in the "Franco-Prussian" war. At the wrote a Latin quotation taken from the of the death of Saul and Jonathan. "The places I am distressed for thee, my m as though he had not been anointed an old Plain-song, "Jerusalem, Jerusalem using this Plain-song, Guilmant voices the Cantata "Gallia," a pleading for Paris to redemption.
"The Bells of St. Anne De Beaupre" Dr. Russell received his inspiration for this number from the famous shrine of St. Ambrose de Beaupre near Quebec which was destroyed by fire a few year ago. We are to imagine hearing the invitation of the St. Anne's Chime presently witnessing the gathering of the faithful, the choir chanting the hymn Bonne St. Anne, "pier pour nons," the procession, the miracle, benediction, an finally hearing the bells in the distance all in all a very interesting description. "Toccata from the Fifth Symphony" A Toccata is a piece for a keyed instrument designed to display the touch an execution of the performer. French composers delight in this form of composition. This is one of the best known among modern examples by Charles Mar Widor living at this time in Paris. Prayer Rev. John E. Bennin		French Clock"	Bornscheir
Dr. Russell received his inspiration for this number from the famous shrine of St. Ambrose de Beaupre near Quebec which was destroyed by fire a few year ago. We are to imagine hearing the invitation of the St. Anne's Chime presently witnessing the gathering of the faithful, the choir chanting the hymn Bonne St. Anne, "pier pour nons," the procession, the miracle, benediction, an finally hearing the bells in the distance all in all a very interesting description. "Toccata from the Fifth Symphony" A Toccata is a piece for a keyed instrument designed to display the touch an execution of the performer. French composers delight in this form of compose tion. This is one of the best known among modern examples by Charles Mar Widor living at this time in Paris. Prayer Rev. John E. Bennin		A short descriptive number arranged	by Henry Fry of Philadelphia.
A Toccata is a piece for a keyed instrument designed to display the touch an execution of the performer. French composers delight in this form of composition. This is one of the best known among modern examples by Charles Mar Widor living at this time in Paris. Prayer Rev. John E. Bennin	"The	Dr. Russell received his inspiration f St. Ambrose de Beaupre near Quebec ago. We are to imagine hearing presently witnessing the gathering of Bonne St. Anne, "pier pour nons," tl finally hearing the bells in the distan
A Toccata is a piece for a keyed instrument designed to display the touch an execution of the performer. French composers delight in this form of composition. This is one of the best known among modern examples by Charles Mar Widor living at this time in Paris. Prayer Rev. John E. Bennin	"Toco	cata from the Fifth Symphony	y"Wido
	d.	A Toccata is a piece for a keyed insexecution of the performer. Frenchtion. This is one of the best known	strument designed to display the touch and composers delight in this form of composi
			Por John E Bennin
Benediction	Praye	er	