
Organ Recital.

Last evening an organ recital was given on the grand organ, built for the edifice of St. David's P. E. Church, Manayunk. A choice programme was arranged, including a symphony movement from Beethoven, displaying the solo stops of the organ. Andante, in G, by Smart; Thunder Storm, arranged from David; prelude, in B minor, Bach; allegretto, in B minor, by Guillemant, and Wedding March, by Pomawibso. There was also vocal music by the Corinthian Quartette. The following organists participated: Edward C. Jardine, of New York; John Zebley, of St. Philip's Church; S. T. Strong, of Grace Church, and Isaac Barton, M. D., of Spring Garden M. E. Church. There are 32 stops and 1340 pipes in the new organ. The great organ has 12 stops, the small 11, and the pedal organ 3.
