Music Ministry

- Chancel Choir provides an opportunity for adults to sing a varied repertoire to enrich the worship celebration at Augustana.
- Senior Elite is a group of retired people who enjoy the musical and social aspects of belonging to a serious choral group without an every week rehearsal and performance schedule.
- Celebration is a choir for junior and senior high school students. This choir sings once each month for worship as well as regular special activities.
- Choristers provides a musical singing and educational experience for children in grades 2 - 6. They sing once or twice each month for worship and for special festival celebrations.
- Special Music members and friends who have musical ability are encouraged to provide special vocal and instrumental music to enrich worship in cooperation with the established church programs.

Instruments

- Organs The Great Chancel Organ is a 61 rank, 4 manual instrument built by the Reuter Organ Company of Lawrence, Kansas in 1940 and renovated with additions in 1985.
- The Christ Chapel Organ is a 5 rank, 2 manual instrument built by the Wicks Organ Company of Highland Park, Illinois for a private home in 1976, and moved to the Chapel in 1985.
- Harpsichord The harpsichord is an 8', 8', 4' Burton built in 1978 and rebuilt by Tom Bailey in 1984.
- Piano A 7' Kranich and Bach rebuilt in 1985 by Chris Finger.
