—There is no danger from whooping cough when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given. It liquefies the tough tenacious mucus and aids in its expectoration. It also lessens the severity and frequency of the paroxysms of coughing, and insures a speedy recovery. There is not the least danger in giving it to children or babies, as it contains no injurious substance. 50-

A large audience gathered at the Opera house last evening to listen to the fourth annual home concert given by the Beloit Glee and Banjo club, and the high reputation which these concerts have attained here and throughout the northwest was fully sustained.
Every number was rendered in a manner which demonstrated the ability of the performers in their respective lines, and it is no exaggeration to say the whole program was without exception a most enjoyable and interesting one, successfully given.

cond attack of the grip this year," says Mexico, Texas. "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success only being in bed a little over two days, against ten days for the first attack.

The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first, but for the use of this remedy, as I had to go to bed in about six hours after being struck with it, while in the first case —The new St. Bernard's church organ dedicated last evening contains 1,704 pipes, and reaches the height of an ordinary three-story dwelling. It is capable of producing the tones of distant thunder, equally as well as those of the flute. The effect produced is not one of great noise, but one of grand cords and beautiful melody. No sound of busy mechanism, but only music reaches the ear. Below is given a complete description of the instrument:

former clerk with G. A. Trayser, was struck by the fast mail train Saturday morning, just east of Reeseville. He was walking on the side of the track, but not far enough to clear the train.
He received a double fracture of the skull and an arm and one leg were broken. At first he was supposed to be fatally injured, but it is now the opinion that he may recover from the accident. Capelle is 22 years of age.

The following city ticket was nominated: mayor, Dr. Wm. C. Spalding; treasurer, Joseph Walter; assessors, Charles Roth and Thomas Moore. Justice of the peace for the First, Second and Seventh wards, Wm. Bieber. Wm.
L. Norris, H. T. Eberle and Dr. Wm. F.
Whyte were appointed by the chair a city committee for the ensuing year.

Gerrymander Knocked Out.

The state supreme court stands as a bulwark between the people of Wisconsin and the infamous gerry-mander of the state by the legislature of the Peck-Wall-Vilas combine, and holds in a decision yesterday that the apportionment of 1891 is unconstitutional and void.

This is glory enough, not only for Republicans, but many fair-minded, honest Democrats beside. And what makes the decision the more galling and bitter to the Democratic state administration, is in the fact that the majority of the judges constituting the court are Democrats, and, therefore, it cannot be charged with being a partisan opinion. An extra session will next be in order, to right the wrong done the people by a legislature whose stock in trade was reform.

—Read the advertisement of Wm Trachte's grand spring opening in which great bargains in dry goods are announced.

fore spring's invoice. This is only for a short time, so call at once. Res-
