History of the Loyal Class Organ Fund

The Loyal Class was organized on February 2, 1928, with an enrollment of ten enthusiastic members. The following year the idea of raising funds for a pipe organ to be presented to the church was conceived. The project received whole-hearted cooperation and within a few months about five hundred dollars had been obtained.

Because of the depression fewer contributions were received in the following years, although the goal was constantly in mind. The class grew in membership and Christian fellowship, discharging other tasks creditably, and growing in spiritual strength.

With 1938 came more prosperous times and in April the class eagerly resumed their unfinished work begun nine years previously. The membership was divided into three teams, "Do," "Re," and "Mi," and the donors provided encouragement as their gifts were reported in happy competition between the teams.

The joy of a task well done became theirs in September this year when the contract for the organ was signed.

The members of the Loyal Class hold in fond memory Grace Turnquist and Myrtle Turnquist McCullagh, whom the Lord has called; their vision, courage, and steadfast effort greatly inspired the group in this undertaking.

In presenting the organ to the church the Loyal Class is deeply thankful to the donors and profoundly grateful to Him who gives the will and the opportunity to serve.
