

HENRY BERGER (1854); “in progress,” October, 1854, but perhaps never built; the interior of the church was gutted during the Civil War

Christ Church, P.E.

Charleston (Mount Pleasant), South Carolina

[Excerpt from:] “Local Matters. / New Church Organs,” The (Baltimore, Md) Sun 35, no. 127 (Thursday, October 12, 1854): 1.

50 voices. There is also an organ of very costly character, with two rows of keys, now building for the Christ Church, (Protestant Episcopal,) Charleston, S. C. He has also just finished an organ for a