NOTES

From the New York City Organ Project website, "The Memorandum of Agreement (Jan. 12, 1927) between M.P. Möller and the Free Synagogue of Flushing, L.I., shows that Möller would build a new organ for a consideration of $7,200, that would be ready for use on or before June 1, 1927. Möller provided a detached three-manual stop-key console and casing of quartered oak. Wind pressure for the organ was set at 5". The organ has been altered since its installation.

The organ is installed in side-by-side chambers at the front of the room behind ornamental grilles.
