SWELL BOX or EXPRESSION ENCLOSURE

To be furnished and installed by The Reuter Organ Company; the said swell box or expression enclosure to be hardwood faced, and painted a color harmonious to its' surroundings. The said swell box or expression enclosure will utilize a corner position of the organ area, thus incorporating the back and side walls of the organ area to complete the enclosure for those stops designated as being under expression.

INSTALLATION

The organ is to be installed in the space now occupied by the present pipe organ. The purchaser is to remove the present grille entirely, to thus provide a free-standing organ installation. Any improvements deemed necessary by The Reuter Organ Company to enhance the acoustical environment of the choir gallery and organ area will be accomplished by the Church at its' expense, but in accordance with the recommendations made by The Reuter Organ Company, prior to the installation of the organ.
