

The new Cathedral chamber organ (portativ) is the result of a very generous gift given by Jacky Fraser & Family, in honour of Jacky's late husband, Angus Fraser - church musician.

Organ Builder: Juget-Sinclair of Montreal
Installation: February 2017
Dedication: Choral Evensong, Sunday April 23rd, 2017 with the Cathedral Choir and Alexander Weimann Directing

Specifications:

Bourdon 8', cherry
Flûte à cheminée 4', cherry
Doublette 2', 52% tin

- Cherry wood casework in two sections, upper and lower, for ease of transport
- Transposable in 4 different pitches A= 392 - 415 - 440 - 465 htz
- 54 note keyboard C-f", boxwood naturals and ebony sharps
- 55 note windchest, BB-f" (BB is retuned to BBflat at 392)
- 3 stops divided in bass/treble, giving more options for registrations
- Drawer-style keyboard retracts into case for transportation
- Tuning slides on open metal pipes (permits tuning in any temperament)
- Integrated electric blower

