Campaign for The Cleveland Orchestra

Our Legacy to the Twenty-First Century

CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE

Begun in 1996, The Cleveland Orchestra's $100-million Twenty-First Century Campaign met with extraordinary success, thanks to the generosity of the Greater Cleveland community. When the Campaign ended in 1999, it had exceeded its goals and raised $36.8 million in operating funds, $42.4 million in new endowment, and $36 million for capital improvements, including the Severance Hall Project. In doing so, the Campaign has helped to ensure that The Cleveland Orchestra's artistic pre-eminence and financial stability continue far into the twenty-first century and that Severance Hall once again serves the Orchestra and its community as a state-of-the-art concert hall.

The restoration and reinstallation of the Norton Memorial Organ was funded through contributions to the Orchestra's Twenty-First Century Campaign. The Orchestra is grateful to the following donors for their leadership gifts to the Organ Fund endowment.

D. Robert and Kathleen Barber
Descendants of D. Z. Norton
Arlene and Arthur Holden
Kulas Foundation
Oglebay Norton Foundation

The Orchestra appreciates the thoughtfulness and generosity of the following organ pipe donors.
