

ORGAN ARRIVED.—The new organ for the Duke street Methodist E. Church, of this city, built by Samuel Bohler, of Reading, Pa., arrived here yesterday, and will be placed in position in the church during the present week. The new instrument is of full swell, has two banks of keys and twenty-two stops, and will cost $2,500. An opening concert will be given in the church about the last of the present month, when the new organ will be formally dedicated.—Lancaster Express.
