

On the organ.

Samuel Bohler, organ builder, of this city, went to Hummelstown yesterday to tune the organ of the Lutheran church at that place. From there he will go to Harrisburg to examine the organ of the Catholic cathedral, which he built some seven years ago. A large double bass and other additions are to be made to the instrument with the view of increasing its capacity.

A Wonderful Spectacle in the Park

Bohler to Hummelstown and Harrisburg

Clipped By:

paul486

Sun, Jan 16, 2022