

St. Luke's United Methodist Church
Houston, TX
Chapel Organ

The Chapel Organ at St. Luke's United Methodist Church was a gift from Carl and Joanne Mueller. It is a 14-rank, 2-manual unit-organ, built by the Schantz Organ Company, Orrville, Ohio. It has a moveable drawknob console. The specifications are as follows:

Manual I

16' Gemshorn
8' Principal
8' Gedeckt
8' Spitzflöte
4' Spitzflöte
4' Octave
2' Gemshorn
II Sesquialtera
III-IV Mixture
8' Trumpet
8' Oboe
Zimbelstern
Chimes

Manual II

8' Gemshorn
8' Gemshorn Celeste
8' Gedeckt
4' Principal
4' Spitzflöte
2' Gemshorn
8' Trumpet
8' Oboe
Tremulant

Pedal

32' Resultant
16' Gedecktbass
8' Principal
8' Gemshorn
8' Gedeckt
4' Principal
16' Double Trumpet
8' Trumpet
4' Oboe

Couplers

Manual I to Pedal
Manual II to Pedal
Manual II to Manual I

Reversible Pistons

Full Organ (thumb and toe)
Manual I to Pedal (thumb and toe)

Expression Pedals

Expression
Crescendo

Accessories

4 levels of memory (turn dial)
8 General pistons (thumb and toe)
4 Manual I divisional pistons
4 Manual II divisional pistons
Zimbelstern (drawknob and toe piston)

This organ was dedicated in a service on October 13, 2002. It was given by Carl and Joanne Mueller to the Glory of God and honoring the ministry of Jim and June Moore.